About ReLeaf Michigan

Michigan's only statewide tree planting non-profit organization, ReLeaf Michigan works with communities and organizations to protect and restore Michigan's urban tree canopies. Their mission is to educate the public on the value of trees and how to properly select, plant, and maintain them. Since 1988, ReLeaf Michigan has worked with nearly 500 communities across the state to plant more than 30,000 trees on public property with the help of volunteers.
